The Albuquerque Quality Network has a mission is to educate the Albuquerque area business community on quality principles and processes to improve organizational performance. AQN celebrated twenty-five years in 2015.

AQN and the Anderson School at UNM collaborate to offer a certificate program in Quality Management. The series of seminars required for certification is underway now for AQN members. More information is available at AQNetwork.org. You may start the program of monthly breakfast seminars; completion of eight required topics will earn the certificate awarded in January.
