TOPIC: "From the NFL to Your Organization: How to Raise Expectations and Improve Performance... With Compassion"

Stan Davis will discuss ways to raise expectations in your organization without causing desperation or anxiety. He will draw from his experience in working with players and coaches in professional football and basketball teams.

His background in education, coaching and school administration, as well as consulting experience with corporate and private clients gives him perspectives of ways to motivate better performance, better working relationships and better work environments.
