

ALBUQUERQUE QUALITY NETWORK

Seminar

Register at www.AQNetwork.org

 Nov 21, 2024
7:15-9 am

Via Zoom

Zoom link will be sent upon registering

Members: Free

Non-Members: $20/Seminar

non-member $20/seminar

What is Lean Six Sigma and What is it Used For? Presented by Mark Holtzclaw

Join us for an overview of what Lean Six Sigma is and what it can be used for. Key methodologies and tools used with Lean Six Sigma will be covered. Mark served for 10 years in the U.S. Navy on submarines, then went on to own and operate two businesses. After that, he spent nearly 20 years as an IT Manager at Sandia Labs, where he was first introduced to Lean Six Sigma. Mark is currently working as a Sr. IT Project Manager supporting the NNSA. Mark has three Lean Six Sigma certifications: Green Belt, Black Belt, and Champion. Mark enjoys both sharing his knowledge and learning from others.

LEARN

Presented by experts at the forefront of their field, sessions focus on skills and offers practical suggestions for applying them in real-world situations.

CERTIFICATION

Demonstrate your commitment to upholding quality standards and continued learning to earn Quality Certificate from the UNM Anderson School of Management

NETWORK

Meet prospective mentors, partners, and clients, and gain access to the resources that will foster your career development

thank you to Our Sponsors

Register at www.AQNetwork.org